JAPAN RAISES IMPORT DUTIES.

WILL NET $2,000,000 A YEAR FOR THE WAR FUND.

New Tariff to Go into Effect on July 1 -Other Taxes Also Made Higher -Tobacco to Pay 280 Per Cent .- Heavy Imposts Also on Spirituous Liquers.

A new customs tariff on imports into Japan will go into effect on July 1, so it was announced at the Japanese consulate yesterday, with an increase of duties on amost all articles that are now subject to import tax. The increase is in all cases an ad valorem increase, whether the article was previously taxed by specific or ad valorem duty, and 1s designed to afford an increased revenue for war expenses.

Up to this time the customs receipts have been devoted to internal administration entirely, but after anly I the excess receipts from the new rates will be used for the Empire are about $8,150,000. In the absence of Consu-General Uchida it could not be stated just how great an increase the Japanese Government anticipated, but it is probable that it will exceed $2,000,000. Officials at the consulate took pains to explain that the customs tax was only one and not at all the most profitable of a dozen indirect taxes that will be increased at the

The increases will be made in accordance with a law promulgated Jan. 1 and designed in the first place to take effect April 1, which is the beginning of a new Japanese fiscal year. Later it was considered unnecessary for the new imposts to be levied before the beginning of the second quarter on July 1. The law increases the taxes on the following: Land, incomes, business. liquors, soy, syrup, sugar, excise bourses, customs, mining products, licenses for hunting and fishing, medicines, mails and docu-

The increase in customs duties ranges from 5 per cent. in the cases of raw materials and certain partially manufactured products to 100 per cent. in the case of tobacco, which must pay, all told, a duty of 250 per cent. Very heavy also are the increases in duties upon malt and spirituous liquors, which are subjected to a 35 per cent. ad valorem increase. Significant of the Japanese attitude toward intoxicants are these taxes. Equally significant is the fact that wood pulp (the material for making fact that wood puip (the material for making newspapers), soaps and perfumery will be admitted under the present schedule.

The new schedule, printed in Japanese, was not furnished to the consulate until yesterday and has not yet been translated into English. This will done later in order to accommodate exporters. Generally, the changes, following the schedule of the original, are as follows:

Machinery, now 10 to 25 per cent., increase of 5 per cent. for electrical and agricultural machinery, hunting rities, telephones, etc., to 15 per cent, for photographic machinery. Non-intoxicating beverages and combusti-

Non-intoxicating beverages and combusti-bles, no change.
Liothing and accessories, now 15 to 20 per cent., increase of 20 to 25 per cent.
Drugs, chemicals and medicines, now ap-praised specifically, an average increase of 10 per cent. ad valorem.

Earnings in Last Half Year increased $590.957, and Expenses Went Down.

The New York Central Railroad Company, having arranged to close its fiscal rear on June 30 instead of at the end of December, has issued a report for the six months ended Dec. 31 last; its previous one having been issued as of June 30. The half yearly report shows that gross earnings were $42,100,406, an increase of $890,987 over the corresponding period last year. Expenses of operation were $27.828.271. a decrease of $252,538. In addition, however, $1.215.622 was spent for new construction. The net surplus amounted to $5,072,007, an increase of $138,875. for the new terminal here $407,497 has been spent in eix months, and $382,397 was ex-pended for the general work of electri-

DEFALCATIONS WRECK BANK. Three Employees Get Away With 890,000

of Its Funds-Doors Closed.

LOBAIN, Ohio, March 31 .- At the usual time for opening the doors of the Citizens' Savings Bank to-day there were several hundred depositors on hand ready to draw out their money. The crowd was made up for the most part of foreigners. On the Goor was a notice, which read:

"This bank closed for business. The affairs of the bank have been placed in the hands of T. E. Fancher as assignor. Directors of Citizens' Savings Bank."

"Directors of Citizens' Savings Bank."
There was no demonstration on the part of those gathered about the building. The capital of the bank was $50,000, resources $379,849 and individual deposits $313.-949. Although the directors are reticent, it is known that the closing of the institution resulted from the defalcations by three of its employees and that the sum taken aggregates $90,000. The bank was organized in 1878 as the First National. It was the oldest bank in Lorain.

President Henecker of the bank said to-day that he believed the depositors would receive every cent due them.

MRS. BRODIE DUKE SEES POLICE And Is Referred to Jerome-All to Do With

Missing Securities. Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, whose marriage o Brodie L. Duke resulted in many court proceedings called at Police Headquarters vesterday and had a long talk with acting Captain McCauley, Capt. O'Brien's chief aide in the Detective Bureau. With her was a good looking young woman. After the conference Capt. O'Brien said he couldn't talk about the case. He said that he thought it was within the jurisdiction of the District Attorney or a Magistrate rather than of the police. Mrs. Duke refused to say anything about it as she left, saying she was going to see her lawvers. Levy & Unger. Soon after that Mr. Levy appeared at the District Attorney's office and had a talk with Mr. Rand. Mr. Levy said he hadn't seen Mrs. Duke. It was learned that Mrs. Duke had a talk with Mr. Rand several weeks ago. Mrs. Duke's story was to the effect that somebody had got $12,000 worth of securing from her. She is said to have lost ties from her. She is said to have lost them some time while she was under arrest. one time she is said to have suspected At one time she is said to have suspected a detective of getting them and again she is said to have lost them while she was in the Tombs. Her story was so incoherent that Mr. Rand told her to see her lawyers, tell them the facts and let them bring the case to him. So far the lawyers have not made any complaint to Mr. Rand.

Mr. Unger said yesterday that Mrs. Duke accused a certain man of the larceny of the securities. The man is out of this jurisdiction. There was no detective mixed up. Mr. Unger said up, Mr. Unger said.

MISS GILDERSLEEVE'S LOVE Never Won, She Says, by the Man She Married in a Hurry.

There was a protracted hearing vesterday before Magistrate Tighe in the Butler street court in the case of Edward W. Stewart, charged with the abduction of Miss Madeline E. Gildersleeve, to whom he was married on Sunday evening without the knowledge of her parents. Mrs. Gildersleeve, the girl's mother, testified that she had dis-couraged the attentions of Stewart to her daughter, who was under 16 years of age. nd told him he would have to wait a couple of years.

The Rev. Dr. John E. Lloyd, who married the couple, testified that Miss Gildersleeve informed him that she would be 19 years old on Nov. 24 next, and three other witnesses wore that she made similar statements

The youthful bride surprised the Court by declaring that she had no love for Stewart at the time of the marriage, or at any time previous to that. She said that a solid gold bracelet with a watch attached, which ne was wearing, had been presented to er by Stewart.

It was said on behalf of Stewart that if Miss Gildersleeve had any objection to remaining his wife he would make no op-position to the annulment of the marriage Magistrate Tighe reserved decision.

HALF CENTURY IN POST OFFICE. Fellow Employees Bestow a Fine Cane on Daniel J. Rooney.

Employees of the General Post Office gathered in the office of Supt. C. W. White of the city department at the lunch hour last night to present a cane to Daniel J. Rooney, to mark the completion of fifty years of service as a Post Office official. The presentation speech was made by Assistant Superintendent Owen McDermott.

The cane bears the inscription: "Presented to Daniel J. Rooney by his associates in the New York rost Office, commemorating fifty years of continuous service. 1855—We love you. Dan—1905."

Mr. Rooney has served under thirteen postmasters. He entered the service as a letter carrier. He had been an active member of the Volunteer Fire Department and foreman of old Hose Company 39. He holds at present a position as clerk. He has been a resident of Union Hill, N. J., for over forty years. forty years.

Priest Prays Over Adrian Iselin. The funeral of Adrian Iselin took place at the Iselin home yesterday morning, the Rev. Charles McNicol, pastor of St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Church of Pelham said prayers over the coffin. Only relatives and old employees, long in Mr. Iselin's service, were present. The body buried at Woodlawn.

Pitiful Looking Woman Goes to Island as a Professional Beggar. Pauline Klemp of 226 West Eighteenth street, who is interested in religious and charitable organizations, saw Ellen Kennedy, who says she lives at 127th street and Amsterdam avenue, begging at Eighty-sixth street and Central Park West on Thursday. One arm was done up in a sling, and this, together with her gray heir, made the Kennedy woman a pitiful object as she crouched on the sidewalk.

Miss Klemp says she recognized the woman as a professional beggar and asked to see her sore arm. The woman apparently recognized Miss Klemp, for she snatched the bandage from her arm and ran away at top speed. Miss Klemp pursued, and Policeman Waitzlelder of the West Sixty-eighth street station caught the woman. She at once stuck the bandage in her cost and later, the policeman said, tried to throw it away, but he prevented this.

The prisoner refused to make any statement in the West Side police court yesterday, pretending to be deaf. Magistrate Moss gave her one month on the Island.
